

accursed (vocation)	(being) under a curse amelioration	irrigation, watering of crops and fields array	mask begetting	giving birth to wencher chasing after quills	baker searching for bread blubber	cry or whine with snuffling bragging	boasting brawl	noisy fight in a crowd castigate	punish, whip oneself chaste	morally pure, abstaining from unlawful sex churlish	rude and boorish conjurer, sorcerer	one who practices magic or sorcery deception	misleading falsehood, deceit
(in) defiance (of)	despite, breaking (rules) deluge	flood depraved lecher	a man with strong sexual desires desert	deserved punishment deucedly scarce	barely existing discernment	taste; insight and good judgment drench	wetting, soaking droning	monotonely reading embellish	beautify, decorate forsooth	for god's sake foster-father	a man who raises a child but is not a father frothing	foaming
get the mitten	be dumped by one's partner inclement	unpleasant, merciless indulge	enjoy to excess jilly	merry, happy
joints	connection of two bones; knees and knuckles knock-kneed	having legs like 'X' lass	unmarried young girl lenient	tolerant, merciful mend	repair (a dress) oaf	an awkward stupid person, a goon pastime	leisure time activity pitchfork	a tool for moving dry grass (huge fork) providence	a manifestation of God's care purl	murmuring sound rascal	one who is playfully mischievous reconcile	come to peace repentance	remorse (for your sins) ripe	fully grown, matured somersault	rolling one's feet over one's head squabble	a quarrel about petty points subterfuge	a lie hiding the truth tumble	a sudden fall

wager	bet

Spectator's guide to Capricious summer in English

